

POSITION OF CITIGROUP GLOBAL MARKETS DEUTSCHLAND AG ON PROVIDING INVESTMENT ADVICE

- 1.1 You take all trading decisions in reliance on your own judgement and not in reliance on us. We will not, unless specifically advised to you in writing, advise you on the merits or suitability of any single transaction or series of transactions, or trading strategy or otherwise provide you with investment advice. We will not agree to provide you with such advice unless you have provided us with such information as we may require. Any trading recommendations, ideas or suggestions, market colour, generic advice, research or other information communicated or otherwise made available to you is incidental to the provisions of services by us to you. We make no representation, warranty or guarantee as to the accuracy or completeness of such information. It is not based on an assessment of your individual circumstances nor should it be relied on as an assessment of the suitability for you of a particular Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, the possession by us (whether or not provided by you) of limited information as to your objectives in relation to a particular Transaction or series of Transactions or trading strategy will not be sufficient for an assessment of your individual circumstances. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, we will not give you tax or legal advice in relation to any transaction and you will be responsible for obtaining your own tax and legal advice from an independent advisor.
- 1.2 If you are a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty, to the extent we are required to assess whether a proposed transaction is suitable or appropriate for you, we will, for the purposes of any such suitability or appropriateness assessment, rely on the information that you have supplied to us.
- 1.3 Citigroup Global Markets Deutschland AG generally does not provide investment advice. If on an exceptional basis investment advice will be provided this will not be done as fee based (independent) investment advice. Inducements provided by third parties in this context may be accepted and kept.
