Citi Named Best Bank for Cash management Services in Czech Republic

PRAGUE – Euromoney magazine has named Citi Czech Republic as best bank for cash management services in its 2018 Cash Management Survey. Citi has again been extremely successful in Czech Republic and 19 other countries across Central and Eastern Europe, Africa, and Latin and North Americas. Compared to the previous year, Citi grew its No. 1 positions from 14 last year to 20 this year.

“We are excited about this year’s results and we appreciate the support of our clients who once again rewarded our products and services in the area of corporate banking,” said Michal Nebeský, Citi’s Country Officer for the Czech Republic. He further added: “Cash management is one of the key services which our clients use both in the Czech Republic and when expanding outside of the country. This prestigious award demonstrates that Citi is an important global and local financial partner for them, providing premium-quality services.”

More than 25,000 international companies were surveyed. In addition, Citi was the regional winner in cash management in Africa, Latin America and North America. The Euromoney Cash Management Survey is recognized as the most prestigious in the financial services industry. Details about the annual survey are available at www.euromoney.com.
